AJAX WISHLIST

1. Features

The AJAX WISHLIST extensions' primary feature is that you can add and remove a product to and from the wishlist in the following pages of the website:

- Home page product listings
- Category page product listings
- Product detail page
- Related products in the product detail page
- Upsell products in the product detail page
- Cross-sell products listing in the cart page
- Search result page
- Advanced search result page

The wishlist gets reflected in the side menu bar wherever applicable in the website.

2. Configuration settings for Ajax Wishlist

A simple configuration will activate the AJAX WISHLIST in your website. Below are the path and field details to configure

Path to configure

Stores -> Configurations -> Customers -> Wishlist -> AJAX Wishlist

Field to configure

Enable - Yes/No

3. Front end site view for Ajax Wishlist 3.1. Homepage

Ajax functionality will work for the widget product list after the extension installation. To enable the wishlist functionality for the existing product, the below template file needs to be replaced:

template="OX_AjaxWishlist::product/widget/content/grid.phtml"

Refer to the screenshot below for template change reference.

3.4. Related products

The related products wibe displayed for every product in the product details page. From here, it can be added to the wishlist.

3.5. Cross-sell products

Products offered as a cross-sellappearon the shopping cartpage, just before the customer begins the checkout process. These products can be added to the wish list.

3.6. Upsell products

Upsell products willbe that the customer may prefer rather than the item presently considered An upsell may be better more mainstreamor have better net evenue. Upsell items show up on the product page. In default Magento, the wishlist icon will not be present the functionality can be made available if you activate the wishlist icon in the upsell product template.

3.7. Search and advanced search result page

The Search Results list incorporates all items that match the search rules entered in the Quick Search box or the Advanced SearEhch item list in the catalog has basically similar controls. The contrast is that one is the search query, and the other is navigation.
